

Glimpses of Indian Spirituality

Professor Darrol Bryant of the University of Waterloo offered this seminar at the University of Waterloo and later at the Kitchener Public Library. Attendance at the University of Waterloo was more than 50 people and the Kitchener Public Library approximately 35. India is a land of rich and diverse spiritual traditions. Darrol's video-lecture on this topic was a result of a study term abroad as part of a course in year 2000. The talk explores in words and images something of the remarkable diversity of Indian spirituality: Hindu, Muslim, Christian, Buddhist, Jain and Sikh emphasizing how people of diverse faiths can live and work in relative peace and harmony due the inherent spirituality of the population.
